A LITTLE ABOUT ME

I knew from an early age how important it was to be understood. As the youngest of three siblings, and one half of a twin, there were times communication was not always clear. Growing up, I quickly learned how to use my voice to help myself and others around me.

My career took a little longer to play out than most, yet it has been the most rewarding experience I could ever ask for. I spent my early adult years raising my son as a single mom, and ensuring he had all the tools he needed to succeed. I sacrificed more than most could imagine. In exchange for my sacrifices, I had a front row seat to his greatness. I learned the definition of determination, grit, and work ethic. It's also where my love for coaching and mentoring flourished. This laid the foundation for me to become the highly-motivated, passionate, servant leader and communicator I am today.

I believe every message needs a 'WHY' to leverage the power of personalization.

My expertise leading cross-functionally in the C-Suite, IT, and HR spaces has allowed me to apply my real-world skills, with evidence based learning from academia.
